

Scrum Master Certification Workshop

Saturday and Sunday , March 13th and 14th, 2010

8:30 am – 5:00 pm

Sheraton – Park South 9901 Midlothian Turnpike

Purpose of the Course

The Certified Scrum Master Workshop is meant for anyone who wants to know how to use Scrum to create astounding products fast. Both provocative and practical, the course challenges your current mindsets and previous experiences so that you can learn to manage projects in a whole new, business value-driven way. The course is taught through interactive activities, lecture (some), real-world experiences and discussions and sharing. Don't expect to sit in your seat for two days. Do expect to change.

Objectives

At the successful completion of the workshop, you will understand how the Scrum framework can be applied to your current and future projects and you will be ready to take the 60 question online ScrumMaster exam administered by the Scrum Alliance.

Lyssa Adkins – Lyssa is an experienced Agile Coach, who came to agile as a project leader with more than fifteen years of project management success. Even with all that experience, she was not prepared for the power and simplicity of agile done well. As a large-scale program manager and director of Project Management Offices turned agile coach and trainer, she has lived it herself. This makes her uniquely able to help others move from their existing world to the agile world. A professional co-active coach, Lyssa coaches agile coaches one-on-one and in coaching circles. She is the author of "Coaching Agile Teams" to be published in Spring 2010 as part of the Mike Cohn Signature Series from Addison-Wesley. Lyssa holds triple certifications: Certified Scrum Trainer (CST), Project Management Professional (PMP), and Six Sigma Green Belt (SSGB).

Lyssa has an Agile blog at www.cricketwing.com.
